

I am disappointed about local radio and TV programming. I find very little information about important local issues that are very dear and near to me such as affordable housing, water rights, and land development. This has led me to rely exclusively on newspapers and the Internet to get my local information since I cancelled our TV cable subscription. I am very disappointed in local news that is aired on TV and Radio and hope things will improve.

Sincerely,

--Jeff Lerner